THE COUNTY TICKET.

For Representatives,
JOHN A. WINTRODE, of Akron.
HON. C. N. RUSSELL, of Cuyahoga Falls.For Prosecuting Attorney, S. G. ROGERS, of Akron.For Auditor, DR. F. J. BAUER, of Mogadore.For Surveyor, T. D. PAUL, of Akron.For Commissioner, CHAS. A. BARNES, of Copley.For Infirmary Director, JOHN SPELLMAN, of Northampton.If Mayor Johnson of Cleveland had expressed to Gen. Dick a willingness to call off his meetings, it might have been different.The fact that three American Presidents have been assassinated within thirty-five years will give future historians something to think about.The correspondent who under the remark several days ago that President Roosevelt would not accept a second term would be popular with some other candidates if he could verify his story.The steel strike, according to Pittsburg estimates, cost the strikers and the trust together about $25,000,000, of which $15,000,000 is apportioned to the trust. But the trust won some slight compensations, while the men gave up $10,000,000 in wages for a little less than nothing.The State Board of Equalization has dodged the issue raised by Mayor Johnson in regard to the taxation of Ohio railroads by declining to act until the courts decide whether the board has a right to interfere with the values "fixed by the County Auditors." Upon this point the matter will be taken into the courts, where it will drag along until after election.Akron's citizens responded nobly to the invitation to join in the McKinley Memorial services at Grace park. All that was needed to round out the perfect day and the simple grandeur of the occasion was this liberal and approving attendance upon the part of the people. By their living memorial, Mr. McKinley's Akron neighbors have expressed a reverence for his memory not less enduring than the monument which in due season they will aid in erecting in his honor.In deciding Mayor Johnson's contention that the tax value of Ohio's railways ought to be raised, the State Board of Equalization was not certain whether it had a right to interfere with the values "fixed by County Auditors." The board might have been more accurate if it had used the term, "values fixed by the railways." The impression is growing among Ohio's voters that the County Auditors have very little to do with fixing railway valuations.Public assemblages such as that at Grace park yesterday seem to bring the citizens of Akron closer together in bonds of neighborly union, and certainly have the effect of stimulating a local public spirit and interest in the affairs of the city. While it is to be hoped that the occasion may never again come to summon the people for a cause so distressing as that which called for yesterday's meeting, their attendance shows how willing they are to respond to any call which appeals to their sense of duty as citizens of Akron.$2.75 CINCINNATI AND RETURN.
Via C. & C. Ry., Sept. 23 and 24.
Return limit 7 days from date.WISE and Otherwise.Pumpkin pies are working over time.A popular amusement these days is to hang Emma Goldman in effigy.Good many small boys figuring out how soon they can expect a hard frost.The man with "sweet" cider has already obtained privileges at the fair.After all the greatest attraction at the County fair is the crowd. What reunions take place there every year!Some heartless iconoclast seems to have broken down the time-honored custom of climaxing a funny sentence with "ha, ha."The quail would not call so musically if they knew that the Akron Gun club members would soon be camping on their trail.At Fate's decree I cannot smile, But count it grievous wrong That girls are wooed so short a while;
And wedded for so long!

—SMILE SET.

Those having the impression that the Colonial Opera house must necessarily be built of hewed logs on the plans of a block house are laboring under a delusion. The opera house will be entirely up to date.The act of Parker, the big negro who seized Czolgosz before he could fire the third shot at President Mc-Kinley, has gone a long way toward creating a kinder feeling for his race.
It is said that steps have already been taken toward providing Parker with a government position, and he is now the hon. of the hour in Buffalo.
He has been given enough cigars to start a wholesale cigar factory, and invited to drink up the products of several breweries.There was a lively time at the City Building, Saturday, for a few minutes when a citizen called to see Mayor Doyle about a campaign matter—in fact, he wanted $15 for services rendered during the late unpleasantness of last spring, and expressed bitter disappointment at being unable to find his honor. His troubles were all spread out before Mayor's Clerk Irwin, but that individual in the name of the Mayor, refused to be "touched," or even "thawed." "It ought to be more," declared the petitioner, "but as a matter of courtesy I'll settle for less than its real value." His courtesy was even stretched farther, for he was dismissed without a cent and invited to never present his claim again.
This made him angrier than ever, so the story goes.

FROM THE "AMEN" CORNER.

You say the hymns is dog-gel—that they ain't refined enough; That all the time we've sung 'em they've been nothin' else but stuff; You say they need revisin'—we must make 'em more polite;
"On Jordan's Stormy Banks I Stand" is not constructed right; But, just the same, Professor Triggs, you'd better let 'em be—
The Lord—he understands 'em—so they're good enough for me.I s'pose there's nothin' finer than that good old "Beulah Land."
And when our Lizzie sings it you can see the glories grand; When "Rock of Ages" rings out from the hallelujah shore, I tell you this old sinner ain't a-goin' to drift no more;
And when they strike "Amazing Grace," each feller singin' free—The Lord—he understands it, so it's good enough for me.It isn't what you're singin'—why, I oftentimes forget And praise the Lord to music with the good old alphabet, Until I strike the words again, and I don't think it's wrong—It isn't what is in it, but the soul behind the song.
So, I tell you, Professor Triggs, you'd better let 'em be—
The Lord—he understands 'em, so they're good enough for me.

Engineer of Mexican RepublicArrested For Embezzling Government Funds.El Paso, Tex., Sept. 23.—(Spl.)—Senor C. C. Paul, chief government engineer for the Republic of Mexico, was arrested Friday at Juarez on a warrant issued by the Federal court charging him with embezzlement. It is estimated he is short in his accounts $25,000. Paul is well known on this side of the river. He recently purchased a collection of thoroughbred dogs and cats, and owns hundreds of game birds.Norris Silver, North Stratford, N. H., "I purchased a bottle of One Minute Cough Cure when suffering with a cough doctors told me was incurable.
One bottle relieved me, the second and third almost cured. Today I am a a Gold Watch.Despite the solemnity of the occasion, the large crowd at Grace park Sunday afternoon was not free from invasion by pickpockets. Several cases have already been reported to the police.J. H. Insande and J. H. Cooke, aged men of Cuyahoga Falls, were heavy losers. From Mr. Cook a pocketbook containing $165 was taken, and from Mr. Insande, a wallet containing $100.

H. L. Emslie, a book agent now canvassing in Akron, reported the loss of a hunting case gold watch.Don't wait until you become chronically constipated but take DeWitt's

TILL PARALYZED.Duke of Cornwall Lost Use of His Arm.Ottawa, Ont., Sept. 23.—The Duke and Duchess of Cornwall and York attended services at Christ's Cathedral at 11 o'clock Sunday, and as they left the outpouring congregation broke into a cheer, the Duke raising his hat in acknowledgment.
At Melbourne the Duke shook hands with 3,000 persons in one afternoon, and lost the use of his arm for over a week. That experiment led to the abandonment of handshaking at general receptions.B. W. Pursell, Kintnersville, Pa., says he suffered 25 years with piles and could obtain no relief until DeWitt's

RALLY DAY.

Record Breaking Attendance at Sunday School.Sunday was a day long to be remembered at the Sunday school of the First Church of Christ, Seldom, if ever, in this city, has such a gathering been seen at a Sunday school rally, as was seen there yesterday. The rally really began Friday night with a Sunday school social. Stereoscopic views of Egypt, and scenes in and around Akron, were thrown upon the screen by Mr. J. C. Frank, to the enjoyment of all present. Refreshments were afterwards served in the lecture room.Sunday morning came with ideal weather for a rally. Last year there were 776 present on Rally Day. This year the motto was "One thousandpresent." To this end officers, teachers and scholars had been hard at work.
When the secretary's report was read Sunday 1,198 were in attendance.
The Bethany Bible class, taught by the pastor, Rev. J. G. Slayter, had 336 present, while Mr. F. B. Theiss' class had 244. All other classes in the school made substantial gains. There was no variation from the regular exercises with the exception of two special musical selections by a ladies' and a male quartet. The auditorium and Sunday school room were beautifully decorated with flags, bunting and wild flowers, while a profusion of cut flowers graced the rostrums. The pastor, Rev. J. G. Slayter, the superintendent W. E. Shabough, together with all other officers, teachers and members of the school, deserve much commendation for this rally which marks an epoch in Sunday school work in Akron.Henry Braydon, Harris, N. C., says:
"I took medicine 20 years for asthma but one bottle of One Minute Cough Cure did me more good than anything else during that time. Best Cough Cure."

FLOWERS

Are Still Arriving
In Canton.Most Beautiful Display Ever Shown.Thousands Visited the Vault at West Lawn Sunday.Canton, O., Sept. 23.—(Spl.)—Thousands of visitors came to this city yesterday to see the flowers and the vault where lies the body of William McKinley. All day the streets were thronged and many visited the First M. E. church which was open all day that all might see the exquisite decorations and the masses of flowers.Floral pieces are still arriving. Many are carried directly to the cemetery and placed about the vault or inside near the casket. Expert florists who have been here from New York say the display of flowers is the most magnificent in history, even far surpassing the flowers at the funeral of Queen Victoria. Their cost is now estimated at from $40,000 to $50,000.A magnificent floral piece which arrived yesterday was sent by order of the Czar of Russia and at Mrs. Mc-Kinley's request it was taken to her home."In dealing with man, remember that a spoonful of oil will go farther than a gallon of vinegar." The same may be said of children. There is nothing so good for children as the old-fashioned castor oil. However much they may abhor it, it is their best medicine for disorders of the bowels. In the more severe cases of diarrhoea and dysentery, however, Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy should be given after the oil operates, and a quick cure is sure to follow. For sale by all drug-

'Tis Only Too True!

Henry Ward Beecher is quoted as having said: "When a man has gone out into the rapids, what he wishes falls. You can buy Good Candy, in
